

Gender and Diversity

Press Release

From Left: Prof. Chandra Mohan ,Professor Dinesh Singh, Prof. Indra Nath Choudhuri, H.E. Mr. Nadir Patel, Prof. Malashri Lal and Prof. Enakshi Sharma.

Centre for Canadian Studies, DU released a new publication, Gender and Diversity: India, Canada and Beyond, edited by Malashri Lal, Chandra Mohan, Enakshi Sharma, Devika Narula and Amrit Basra, published by Rawat Publications of Jaipur (2015) Professor Dinesh Singh, Vice Chancellor, University of Delhi and H.E. Mr. Nadir Patel, High Commissioner for Canada in India launched the book at a function held at India International Centre on 15th October 2015. Distinguished litterateur Prof. Indra Nath Choudhuri presided over the function. Eminent scholars and Canadianists from Montreal, Toronto, University of Delhi, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Indira Gandhi National Open University and Padam Vibhusan Madam Kapila Vatsayayan, Chair, Asia Project IIC; Air Marshal Naresh Varma, Director, India International Centre Dr. Prachi Kaul, Director, Shastri Indo-Canadian Institute and a large number of research students and faculty members graced the occasion with their presence.

The book contains twenty scholarly essays reflecting the connections between India, Canada and other countries in a dynamic global study projecting a modern perspective on contemporary challenges of gender, orality, identity formation, human rights and policy formation, among other prominent conflict areas. The contributors include Sneja Gunew, Jasbir Jain, Malashri Lal, Sushma Yadav, Jameela Begum, Chandra Mohan, Devika Narula and Amrit Basra. The book will prove useful to scholars in Comparative Literature, International Relations, Political Science and Education among other areas.